Farewell!

...14 years of being a Pinnaclette

14 years.....A Lamp to my feet Light to my path!!
Looking back, 14 years of school feels like a collection of moments. It is getting up early on days when I wanted to quit passing through lessons that felt impossible, those laughs in hallways, the stress before exam and smiles after passing. The group projects where only one person actually works, pretending to understand maths, long assemblies, emotional rollercoaster of PTMs and decades of Christmas fetes and founder days. In these 14 years we have mastered the skill of calculating Mid-Term marks, we have mastered the skill of looking awake while purely uncouncious during the chapters being read, finishing our lunch in 5 minutes to gossip the rest 10 mins of lunch. Mastering the skills of escaping classes by asking to go to the washroom and taking the long route to come. Remembering those cheerful excited sports days, those memories being made more in bus than the trip itself.

Some teachers scared me a little, some made me laugh alot and all of them gave me stories that I will never forget— the struggle my kindergarten teachers faced to make me sit in the class in those early days and how they had to take my tightly hugged bag out of my arms, the funny conversation about shav assan with my yoga sir.

The rough and tough moments spent with my class teachers have become a part of my being. Friends with whom I shared my first shy hellos to sharing laughter and tears, years of inside jokes that no one else would understand. I've learnt to be patient when thing get hard, have courage when I feel unsure . The place feels like home and I wonder now how am I suppose to say goodbye to this place. I want to say a big thank you to everyone who made these years chaotic, memorable and somehow totally worth it.

Reasons why I can't stay away from the screen.

Smartphones are a very important part of our life. We are all so dependent on smartphones that today we can't even imagine our lives without them. We can't deny that our lives have changed positively but there is a negative side also.

We all are hooked on to our phones most of the time. Sometimes, using phones is totally unnecessary. We have a lot of relatives abroad and we can video call them. It feels like we are sitting across the table and talking. I try to use it for getting more knowledge and I use ChatGPT for some projects. I'm not allowed to use social media apps like Instagram. In the beginning, I was not happy but now I have realised what a waste of time it is. These apps are a major distraction and an addiction too. My mother has allowed me to use phones only for 20 minutes daily after studying.

My inspiration- My elder Sister.

I'm indeed blessed to have such an amazing elder sister. She's been my inspiration and I'm so proud of her. My sister's command on English language is excellent because of her, my English is good too. You must be wondering why am I telling you all this.

There's a reason. Recently, something amazing and totally unexpected happened. She officially became the youngest author in the Scholastic India Team. She was chosen out of a group of 10 students. They questioned her about various books and she answered them all correctly. After the selection, she had to take classes at noon everyday. She was tired, but she didn't give up. She wrote a story about a girl, Nefertiti, who adored her cat, Pluto very much. The cat was supposed to be the incarnation of the Moon goddess, Selene.

One day, the cat vanished....She looked for her everywhere, and then she found her cat half-eaten by a man named Mr Alan. He had extreme guilt on his face, but Nefertiti was furious. She grabbed a bottle lying nearby and killed him. Now, her hands were soaked in blood. Every full moon, the man haunted her in her dreams. There was a very dark twist in the story, and the story was named "The Price of Adoration". The mentor thought that the story was extra-ordinary, so she selected my sister to become a panellist in the World Book Fair. I was so proud of her. And at last, she officially became the youngest author in the Scholastic team. Scholastic has indeed changed her life.

काश! मैं किसी के जीवन में वसंत बन जाऊँ.....

वसंत ऋतु को खुशियों और नवीनता का राजा माना जाता है। कभी-कभी मेरे घरवाले तथा कुछ रिश्तेदार मुझसे पूछते हैं कि मैं बड़ी होकर क्या बनना चाहती हूँ? मैं सोच में पड़ जाती हूँ कि क्या कहूँ? क्या सिर्फ कोई ओहदा पाकर ही बड़ा हुआ जा सकता है? या फिर किसी कुर्सी का कमाल और धमाल ज़रूरी है! अगर मैं किसी के जीवन का वसंत बन जाऊँ तो क्या ये जीवन का एक अनुपम लक्ष्य नहीं होगा? अवश्य होगा। कई लोग परेशानियों, दुःख और अकेलेपन में जीते हैं। ऐसे समय में अगर मैं उनके साथ रहूँ, उनकी मदद कर सकूँ और उन्हें मुस्कुराने का मौका दूँ तो उनका मन हल्का हो जाएगा। जैसे वसंत आने पर पूरा जग हरा-भरा हो जाता है और पूरी प्रकृति दुल्हन-सी प्रतीत होती है वैसे ही मैं और मेरा प्यार भी उनका सहारा बन जाए और उनकी जिंदगी सँवार दे। मैं कोशिश करूँगी कि अपनी बातों से, अच्छे कार्यों से और अपना साथ देकर उनका मनोबल बढ़ाऊँ। मदद करना, दुःख में साथ देना और प्रेरित करना यही कुछ भाव हैं जो वसंत की तरह लोगों के जीवन में रंग भर सकते हैं। अगर मैं किसी के जीवन में वसंत बन सकूँ तो मुझे बहुत संतोष और खुशी मिलेगी। मेरी छोटी-सी ये चेष्टा किसी की जीवन में बड़ा बदलाव ला सकती है।

MY SCHOOL FETE

My school fete is one of the most joyful and eagerly awaited events of the year. On this special day, the entire school campus is filled with excitement and happiness. The school ground which is usually calm and quiet, turns into a lively place full of colours, laughter, and cheerful voices. From early morning, the school looked festive and welcoming.

The campus was beautifully decorated with colourful posters, banners and handmade charts. Soft music, laughter, and enthusiastic chatter filled the air, creating a joyful atmosphere. Everywhere, students could be seen smiling and enjoying themselves with their friends, making the day even more special. Many stalls were set up during the fete.

There were food stalls, game stalls, and activity corners. The food stalls offered delicious and mouth – watering items like Chowmein, Momos, and Chole bhature, whose tempting aroma spread across the ground. The game stalls attracted many students with exciting games such as Chocolate Wheel, Guess the weight of cake and number of candies in the box, Lucky dip etc. These stalls were always crowded with children trying their luck and having fun. My friends and I moved from stall to stall, played games and enjoyed the tasty food.

The happiness on everyone's faces made the fete more enjoyable. Even the teachers looked happy and relaxed on this day. They encouraged the students and enjoyed the celebrations along with us. The school fete filled the entire campus with joy and enthusiasm. It brought students and teachers together and created a strong spirit of togetherness. The happy memories of the school fete will always remain in our hearts for a long time, making it a truly memorable and enjoyable experience.

MUN MATTERS

Today, I am going to tell you about UNGA. United Nations General Assembly which is an international assembly in which countries discuss about their problems and try to find solutions. Children are also given a chance to get this experience every year. I was quite lucky that I got a chance this year to represent my school. It was held in Ramjas International School. The Chief Guest, this year, was Professor Tao from Myanmar.

It was a very thrilling experience as it prepares students for leadership, diplomacy, and debate on international issues. The Secretary of UNGA was also present this year. We discussed various issues like education for girl child, global warming, saving water etc. The best school gets awarded each year. This year we bagged the trophy in the Junior Category. It was a very proud moment for all of us as more than 19 schools were competing against each other.

मैं और मेरा तकिया.....

मेरा और मेरे तकिए का रिश्ता बहुत गहरा और खास है। जितना साथ मेरा अपने दोस्तों का नहीं, उससे कहीं ज़्यादा साथ मेरा तकिया देता है। जैसे ही मैं विस्तर पर जाती हूँ, तकिया मुझे देखकर ऐसे खुश हो जाता है जैसे कोई पुराना दोस्त मिल गया हो। दिनभर की थकान, पढ़ाई का तनाव और मम्मी की डाँट सब मैं अपने तकिए पर सिर रखते ही भूल जाती हूँ। कई बार तो ऐसा लगता है कि तकिया मुझसे धीरे से कह रहा हो- "बस अब फोन छोड़ दे, आराम कर ले।" पढ़ाई करते-करते जब नींद आने लगती है तो मैं तकिए पर सिर रखते ही कुछ ही सेकेंड में सपनों की दुनिया में पहुँच जाती हूँ। कई बार किताब हाथ में होती है और मैं सो जाती हूँ। सुबह किताब तो नीचे गिरी मिलती है लेकिन तकिया हमेशा मेरे साथ रहता है। गर्मियों में यह मेरा पसीना भी सहता है और सर्दियों की ठंडी रातों में मुझे आराम देता है। कभी-कभी मैं इसे गले लगाकर भी सो जाती हूँ जैसे कोई टेडी बियर हो। एक बार जब तकिया धुलने गया था उस दिन मुझे ऐसा लगा जैसे मेरा कोई खास दोस्त छुट्टी पर चला गया हो। मैं पूरी रात इधर-उधर करवटें बदलती रही। बस एक ही धुन याद आती रही.....तेरे जैसा चार कहीं.....कहाँ ऐसा चाराना.....

खामोशी की ताकत: जब न बोलना भी एक जवाब होता है।

आज की दुनिया शोर से भरी हुई है - सोशल मीडिया, बहसों, राय और टिप्पणियाँ। हर कोई बोलना चाहता है। अपनी बात साबित करना चाहता है। लेकिन इस भीड़ में खामोशी धीरे-धीरे गुम होती जा रही है। खामोशी कमजोरी नहीं होती, बल्कि कई बार यह सबसे मजबूत जवाब होती है। जब हम बिना बोले किसी स्थिति को समझते हैं। सामने वाले को सुनते हैं और खुद से जुड़ते हैं। तभी असली समझ पैदा होती है।

रिश्तों में, पढ़ाई और ज़िंदगी के फैसलों में खामोशी हमें सोचने का समय देती है। आज जब हर सवाल का तुरंत जवाब देने का दबाव है, तब खामोशी हमें सिखाती है कि हर प्रतिक्रिया ज़रूरी नहीं होती। कभी-कभी रुकना, सीखना और फिर आगे बढ़ना ही असली जीत होती है।

अगर कितने छुट्टी पर चली जाएँ तो.....

अगर मेरी कितने छुट्टी पर चली जाएँ तो सबसे पहले मैं एक किलो देसी लड्डू का भोग ईश्वर के घरों में चढ़ाऊँगी। उस दिन तो मेरी तो खुशी का ठिकाना ही नहीं रहेगा! मैं सोचूँगी...वाह! अब न पढ़ाई, न होमवर्क, तिरफ़ खेल और मोबाइल। लेकिन असली मज़ा तो कुछ दिनों में ही खत्म हो जाएगा। स्कूल जाने पर टीचर पूछेंगी कि, "किताब क्यों है?" और मैं सोचूँगी-"भेदभेद, वो तो भगाली घूमने गई है!" मुझे लगता है मेरी गणित की किताब सबसे पहले छुट्टी पर जाएगी क्योंकि मैं उसे सबसे ज्यादा खोलती हूँ। हिन्दी की किताब शायद अपने दोस्तों के साथ कहानी सुनने निकल जाए और अंग्रेज़ी की किताब विदेरा घूमने चली जाए। फिर मैं घर में बैठकर उनका वैसे ही इंतज़ार करूँगी जैसे कोई अपने दोस्तों का करता है। मैं तो यही चाहती हूँ कि हे भगवान! कितानों की छुट्टियों का मिलगिला हंगामा चलता रहे.....कभी न रुके!
